Saxion University Campus

About Saxion Enschede

The building is the first real 'City campus' in Holland. It doesn't look like a traditional school at all. Characteristic to the building are the pavilions, which lodge different types of education. The campus does not consist of just classrooms but also of study group - and individual working spaces, the so-called 'study landscape'. The City campus is situated in a quiet green part of the town, next to the city park and only a few minutes walking away from bus and train station and the lovely towncentre. The campus has a lot to offer: restaurants, an espresso bar and a theatre. These facilities all contribute to a pleasant stay.

In addition to the main campus, we recently opened a completely new 7-story building that houses our School of Creative Technology.

The accommodations are located throughout the city – not on-campus, but all within cycling or walking distance from Saxion. The rooms we offer differ in size, are fully furnished and have all the basic facilities, such as a bed, table, chair and wardrobe. You will be assigned a single room and you will have to share the facilities like kitchen and bathroom with other international Saxion students. The common facilities are shared by a maximum of 7 students*.

In some dormitory buildings students share the same front door with more students but the common facilities are set on max. 7 students per kitchen/per toilet/per shower. Each room has a standard set of bed linen, consisting of a duvet, duvet cover, sheet, pillow and a pillow case. You will need to bring your own towels. The kitchen has a standard inventory with pots, pans and basic cutlery.

It goes without saying that internet is provided in all of our accommodation buildings. In most cases you will need your Saxion login details (Saxion student number and connection password) to access the internet. Besides the above mentioned inventory, a washing machine and vacuum cleaner are also present in the accommodation. Caretakers are available if you need help with all housing-related issues.
