1. Catered Halls Accommodation

Catered halls offer rooms with a mixture of unsuited facilities and shared bathrooms, plus some flats and studios. Pantries are available for a midnight snack and we provide a small fridge in your room. This option is great for removing the unnecessary hassle of shopping, cooking and cleaning. You can eat breakfast and dinner with your hall friends, and there are social events and formal dinners throughout the year. You also receive a flexible lunch card that can be used at different outlets on our campuses. The catered halls are for undergraduate students

2. Off Campus Accommodation

These are privately owned properties comprising primarily of apartments, houses and individual rooms in houses available for rent. Some of these are within walking distance while others are not. Some are fully furnished while others are only partially furnished.

Students are advised to liaise directly with the property owners or operators regarding off-campus accommodation. It is advisable to gather the correct information and clarify details before deciding. Note that you are likely to sign a one-year contract.

Although the University may assist in initiating the contact, It is ultimately a contract between the student and the landlord/operator.

The following are some options that you may consider:

1. UniVillage, consisting of 4 blocks of condominiums.
