OFF CAMPUS ACCOMODATION

Undergraduate first-year students are encouraged to stay at BINUS Square.

Apartments and student rooms known as 'kost' are off-campus accommodation types available in the residential areas around BINUS campuses. Students can rent apartments or single rooms in the dormitory pavilions and private homes. The prices vary ranging from USD 50 to USD 300 monthly. We can provide a list of recommended kost pavilions. We can also recommend websites advertising apartments for rent.

Notes

All students are expected to have their own computer

1. The food and leisure cost above is the minimum prediction and depends on your lifestyle
2. All students are required to have a health insurance unless they can show proof of insurance plan valid in Indonesia. The health insurance only covers basic healthcare. Students must prepare extra emergency funds for special health conditions that are not covered by the provider. For further information, please contact felicia.margaretha@binus.edu
3. Students switching sponsor or entering Indonesia on short term visa need to apply for VITAS in a nearby country (process that takes 1 week with related flight and hotel costs); two exits out of the country may be required
4. Indonesian Temporary Stay Permit (ITAS) process requires Telex, VITAS, MERP (Multiple Re-Entry Permit) as well as the ITAS itself
5. The fee stated is for 2-year ITAS validity period. Shorter ITAS validity durations have different fees applied
